

As a over-the-road truckdriver, the instant traffic and weather channels provide information that is needed desperately by my profession. Weather information can actually save lives. I am so angry to hear about this that I want to have every truck in America stop and not move until this stops not excluding the fuel prices too!